

Open Education Consortium is a global network of educational institutions, individuals and organizations that support an approach to education based on openness, including collaboration, innovation and collective development and use of open educational materials.

The Open Education Consortium (OEC) is an independent not-for-profit (501.c.3) organization incorporated in 2008 under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in the United States of America.

Activities OEC focuses on those who create open education resources (OERs) and those whose activities support the creation and dissemination of OER materials. OEC continues to work to promote various facets of open education by collaborating with institutions, governments, international organizations and individuals. Please refer to About the Open Education Consortium for more information on the Consortium and its activities. OEC is available to everyone everywhere providing the access to global students, faculty, administrators, and policy makers. We strive to provide information on all aspects of open education in one place.
